San Francisco, CA 94102

Re: Nichia Corp. v. Seoul Semiconductor, Ltd., et al.,
Case No. 3:06-CV-0162-MMC (JCS) (N.D. Cal.)

Dear Judge Spero:

Plaintiff Nichia Corporation (“Nichia”) and Defendants Seoul Semiconductor Co., Ltd. and Seoul Semiconductor Inc., (collectively “Seoul”), jointly request additional time to file a joint letter regarding (1) the categories of documents within the foreign sales and marketing materials that will be produced, and (2) proposed dates for the completion of all production of documents in this case.

Under your December 11, 2006 Order, the parties are required to file a joint letter by December 18, 2006. The parties made some headway towards resolution of these outstanding discovery issues, but a December 18 deadline may preempt further progress. Therefore, the parties respectfully request three additional business days, until Thursday, December 21, 2006, to finalize their discussions and file a joint letter with the Court.

Respectfully,

DATED: December 18, 2006
